DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-28, drawn to a flexible coating, classified in class 424, subclass 422.
 - II. Claims 29-43, drawn to a method for producing a coating, classified in class 424, subclass 400.
 - III. Claims 44, drawn to a method for controlling the release rate, classified in class 424, subclass 424.
 - IV. Claim 45, drawn to a method of producing a coating, classified in class 424, subclass 400.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and Inventions II and IV are related as process of making and product made.

The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process.

The method of Group II requires an emulsifier, whereas the method of Group IV does not require the presence of an emulsifier.

3. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP

Art Unit: 1615

§ 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product. It is also well known in the art to use methyl acrylic polymers to control the rate of release of a medicinal additive.

4 Invention III and II are independent and distinct in that there are two different methods which are not connected by operation or design.

5. Invention III and IV are independent and distinct in that there are two different methods which are not connected by operation or design.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species in Group I:

- a) pharmacological compounds in claims 9, 23
- b) pharmacological compounds in claims 10, 24
- c) pharmacological compounds in claims 11, 25

Species in Group II:

- a) pharmacological compounds in claim 41
- b) pharmacological compounds in claim 42

Art Unit: 1615

c) pharmacological compounds in claim 43

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 15 and 29 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1615

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
